Declaration on Halogen Chemicals
Non-Use in Permawick Products World Wide
Statement Prepared on: August 12, 2008

The Permawick Company makes every effort to produce environmentally responsible products. As a result all of our lubricants already meet compliance and do not contain RoHS and Halogen based substances. Third part testing shows our oils to be free of Polybrominated Diphenylethers \(PBDE\) and Polybrominated Biphenyls \(PBB's\) which are all halogenated substances. Our third party test program illustrates our commitment to compliance and environmental awareness.

Halogens are substances that are never used and are not necessary in the production of electric motor lubricants manufactured by the Permawick Company.

The Permawick Company hereby declares that all our trade name products do not contain any halogen based Chemicals and are deemed Halogen Free \(HF\)

The Permawick Company does not use halogens since:

1. They add no useful performance benefit to our oil formulas
2. They produce a negative effect on the environment
